Description:

October is Pregnancy and infant loss awareness month and our topic for this month is on pregnancy loss and stillbirth. In this presentation, Morgan Kraft, RN, Family Birthing Services Nurse Educator at the Alaska Native Medical Center, Jessica Page, MD, maternal fetal medicine physician and Assistant Professor at the University of Utah, and Sarah Hybels, BA, LMT, State Expansion Coordinator for Healthy Birth Day Inc., and Count the Kicks, discuss how to provide support to Indigenous families impacted by pregnancy loss and stillbirth. The new Care and Access for Pregnant People ECHO Program includes an opportunity to engage in a didactic presentation, gain insight on how I/T/U facilities may effectively integrate timely pregnancy care, and become part of a learning community.

Outcomes/Objectives:

1. Examine indigenous birthing practices and how these can be incorporated to improve birth outcomes.
2. Identify barriers that prevent Indigenous women from receiving high quality and culturally appropriate maternal care.
3. Implement best practices to include AI/AN cultural birthing practices in providing maternal care.

Instructions for Obtaining CPE Credit:

To obtain a certificate of continuing education (CE), you must attend the activity in its entirety, submit a completed evaluation, and electronically document your attendance. You will be able to print your certificate after completing the online evaluation. For questions, please contact the CE coordinator for further information.

ACCREDITATION

In support of improving patient care, IHS Clinical Support Center is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

JOINTLY ACCREDITED PROVIDER™
INTERPROFESSIONAL CONTINUING EDUCATION

This activity was planned by and for the health care team, and learners will receive 1.0 Interprofessional Continuing Education (IPCE) credit for learning and change.

Physicians

The IHS Clinical Support Center designates this live activity for 1 hour of AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ for each hour of participation. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
